DOT to offer flight incentives, hotel promos for Cebu tourists

LAPU-LAPU CITY — In response to the recent natural calamities that affected Cebu, the Department of Tourism (DOT) formalized a partnership with Cebu Pacific and the Hotel, Resort, and Restaurant Association of Cebu Inc. (HRRACI) to provide flight incentives and special accommodation packages aimed at attracting more visitors to the island province.

Speaking at the ceremonial signing of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for the launch of the "Visit Cebu" campaign in Lapu-Lapu, Cebu on Friday (Dec. 12), Tourism Secretary Christina Garcia Frasco underscored the DOT's efforts to reinvoke tourism activities in Cebu and reinforce its status as a premier destination for leisure, dive, and heritage tourism, among others.

"On the part of the Department of Tourism, we are investing by securing the provision of hotel vouchers that will allow tourists to stay longer, to spend more, and to ensure that business and livelihood thrives here in Cebu not just for our establishments but especially to our tourism frontliners," Secretary Frasco said.

Targeting six priority markets, "Visit Cebu" also includes a coordinated digital marketing campaign that promotes Cebu's tourism offerings to travelers from Korea, Japan, Thailand, Singapore, Hong Kong, and Vietnam, all of which are directly connected to the island-province through Cebu Pacific's international routes.

"The Visit Cebu campaign is meant to reinvoke tourism here in Cebu and to communicate that Cebu continues to be open for tourism. Our collaboration is not limited to the provision of vouchers and opportunities to fly as this will also translate to real and tangible business opportunities for our stakeholders," the Tourism Chief continued.

Fly and Stay Cebu

Anchored on the "Visit Cebu" campaign initiated by the Department of Tourism (DOT) to strengthen the province's global visibility and support tourism recovery, a landmark partnership with Cebu Pacific and the Hotel, Resort, and Restaurant Association of Cebu Inc. gateways for travelers to experience Cebu's world-class beaches and vibrant culture.

DOT Secretary Christina Garcia Frasco, who led the signing of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) on Dec. 12, said the partnership comes at an opportune time to help Cebuanos uplift and revitalise the local tourism industry once more.

Under the agreement, foreign visitors will have a chance to enjoy a complimentary one-night hotel stay, hospitality promos, and other vouchers across DOT's partner accommodation and resort establishments through HRRACI.

"We are rolling out very, very exciting packages, promotions, offers that we have never done so before to make travel more exciting, more accessible, and affordable for everyone and our target markets," HRRACI President Mia Singson-Leon said.

There will also be business-to-business sessions connecting local tourism enterprises and suppliers, as well as a familiarization tour in the coastal town of Moalboal and the island of Malapascua to boost Cebu's dive tourism offerings from key source markets.

These come as the DOT prepares for the next iteration of the Philippine Dive Experience, gathering foreign tour operators, members of the media, and other tourism stakeholders to showcase the country's diving sites.

As part of its support to this flagship initiative by the DOT, Cebu Pacific will extend air travel support for vetted buyers, while HRRACI will oversee hotel partnerships and voucher management for the program.

"By combining exclusive flight incentives, strategic overseas promotion and special hotel and resort packages from our HRRACI partners, we will position Cebu as a top regional choice for leisure travelers, divers, adventure seekers, and culture lovers," Cebu Pacific Chief Marketing and Customer Experience Officer Candice Iyog.

According to Secretary Frasco, this tripartite agreement embodies the shared commitment between the national government and the private sector to widen Cebu's reach, enrich its tourism brand, and advance the continued recovery of its tourism industry.

Cavite scholars gather...

From the moment the gates opened, the venue pulsed with excitement. Students filled the grounds with cheers, laughter, and shared anticipation as they proudly gathered as beneficiaries of the Iskolar ng Lalawigan program. As night fell, the stage came alive with performances from December Avenue, Sunkissed Lola, Soapdish, and other guest artists, transforming the campus into a sea of waving lights and joyful voices singing in unison.

The program opened with welcome remarks from CvSU President Dr. Ma. Agnes Nuestro, who expressed pride in the scholars and appreciation for the government's commitment to education.

In his message, Governor Francisco Gabriel "Abeng" Remulla reaffirmed the provincial government's continued commitment to ensuring that Caviteño learners receive sustained support to pursue their dreams.

He was joined by 7th District Congressman Crispin Diego "Ping" Remulla, who encouraged students to stay motivated, value their education, and strive to become future leaders and nation-builders.

Beyond the music and festivities, the event became a meaningful space for scholars to connect, celebrate milestones, and feel the tangible support of the government behind them. The energy of the crowd, the unity among young Caviteños, and the shared sense of pride made the evening more than just a concert—it was a reminder that education opens doors, and that the province stands firmly behind its learners.

The Iskolar ng Lalawigan program has already benefitted more than 85,000 students provincewide, reflecting the provincial government's ongoing investment in developing future leaders and nation-builders.

As the Iskolar ng Lalawigan program continues to roll out across Cavite, thousands more students are set to receive educational assistance in the coming days. With every gathering, every stage, and every milestone, the provincial government strengthens its mission to uplift Caviteño scholars — nurturing not only careers and aspirations, but also confidence, community, and hope for a brighter future. — Office of the Provincial Information Officer

PhilHealth-8 taps gov't...

During a recent YAKAP orientation for government communicators, PhilHealth-8 officials emphasized the crucial role of public information officers, state-run media bureaus, and local government communicators as "frontline partners in public service," whose ability to reach and influence grassroots communities makes them indispensable to YAKAP's success.

Henry S. Madula, head of PhilHealth Local Health Insurance Office in Ormoc, emphasized the role of government communicators in ensuring that Filipinos, especially marginalized and vulnerable groups, are informed of their rights and entitlements under the government's Universal Health Care Program.

"Our government communicators can help ensure that accurate, timely, and life-changing health information reaches even the most remote households," Madula said.

The PhilHealth official explained that while YAKAP offers free consultations, basic laboratory tests, and access to essential medicines, many Filipinos remain unaware of these benefits. The information gap often leads to underutilization of services that could prevent more serious illnesses.

YAKAP, launched as the upgraded version of the Konsulta package, is designed to shift the national health system toward prevention rather than treatment. It expands access to medicines, consultations, and laboratory tests, with a renewed emphasis on preventive care and early detection.

The YAKAP lab tests include blood chemistry and urinalysis, and in select areas, screening tests for conditions such as hypertension, diabetes, and certain cancers. Members also receive support for outpatient medicines under complementary programs.

To make the services even more accessible, YAKAP is integrated into the eGovPH app, allowing members to register and access their benefits digitally. Registration is also available through PhilHealth's website, local offices, or at any accredited primary care provider.

DILG pushes stronger...

DILG Undersecretary Rolando Puno, Chairperson of the Board of Judges, led the ceremony with BFP Chief Jesus P. Fernandez, SM Prime Holdings Inc. President Jeffrey Lim, and SM Supermalls Vice President Engr. Liza Silerio. The gathering celebrated excellence, courage, and the daily sacrifices of frontline responders who keep communities safe.

In his keynote message delivered on behalf of DILG Secretary Jonvic Remulla, Undersecretary Puno reiterated the Department's resolve to elevate fire service nationwide in line with President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr.'s broader public safety agenda.

"Through TOFF, we are affirming our commitment to strengthening fire safety services and extending our gratitude to the men and women of the BFP who never waver in upholding the oath they took," he said.

He hailed the awardees as standard bearers of discipline, integrity, and resilience. He said, "Firefighters are at the heart of our nation's lifeline. I salute this year's awardees and finalists for setting a positive example. Your discipline, integrity, and resilience uplift the entire firefighting force. You give Filipinos confidence in times of crisis."

This year's Commissioned Officer awardees are FSSUPT Bartolome O. Beliran of Region 6, FSUPT Josephus F. Alburu of NCR, FCINSP Zardoz V. Abela of Region 8, FSINSP Julius R. Mangrubang of Region 3, and FSINSP Karl Aerole M. Rosales of NHQ. The Non Commissioned Officers recognized were SFO3 Lloyd C. Francisco of Region 3, SFO2 Donn C. Analogue of Region 11, SFO1 Jan Vincent R. Alba of Region 4A, FO3 Dianne Daphne P. Bruno of Region 4A, and FO2 Bernard P. Sureta of Region 5.

Each awardee received a plaque of recognition, a medallion, and a cash prize of P250,000 from SM Prime Holdings.

Undersecretary Puno also commended the leadership of BFP Chief Fernandez, citing reduced fire incidents and the Bureau's growing footprint in the Unified 911 emergency system launched this September.

He emphasized that modernization efforts remain a priority under the proposed 2026 budget, including the procurement of firetrucks and the construction of additional fire stations to strengthen community protection.

He acknowledged SM Prime Holdings for its sustained partnership and expressed the Department's readiness for deeper collaboration toward "a safer, adaptive, and disaster resilient Philippines."

The TOFF program annually recognizes five Commissioned Officers and five Non Commissioned Officers who embody bravery, innovation, and dedicated public service.

Also present were DILG Assistant Secretary Lilian M. De Leon, BFP NHQ Praise Committee Chairperson FCSUPT Wilberto Rico Neil A. Kwan Tiu, TOFF 2025 Head Secretariat Atty. Pearly Joan Jayagan Turley, and partners from the public and private sectors. (PIA)

DSWD provides AICS, livelihood assistance to viral 19-year-old "Boy Buhat" of Divisoria

The Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) has underscored its commitment to empowering the vulnerable youth as Secretary Rex Gatchalian personally extended support to Christian Tee, popularly known online as "Boy Buhat," following the latter's viral encounter with a news reporter in Divisoria.

Christian, a 19-year-old porter in the busy Divisoria shopping district in Manila, dreams of becoming a broadcast reporter. He captured public attention when footage circulated online showing him eagerly approaching a journalist to borrow a microphone and deliver an impromptu report.

DSWD Secretary Rex Gatchalian and agency spokesperson Asst. Secretary Irene Dumla interviewed Christian on Wednesday and provided him with the needed assistance.

"Napanood ko yung reel mo, pero pinapunta rin ako ng Presidente natin. Sabi niya, hanapin kita at tulungan. Napanood natin ng presidente natin yung reel mo eh. So, nandito kami kasi may dala kaming tulong galing sa DSWD. Alam ko, kini kwento ni Jessie kanina sa akin na gusto mo maging reporter," Secretary Gatch-ian said on Wednesday (December 10).

Two kinds of support were given by the DSWD to Christian: cash aid under the Assistance to Individuals in Crisis Situations (AICS) program and assistance from the Sustainable Livelihood Program (SLP) to help him start a small siomai business.

A separate assistance package was also extended by the DSWD to Christian's grandparents.

Christian relocated to Manila from Nueva Ecija in search of employment to support a child residing in the province and has expressed a strong desire to resume formal schooling.

The 19-year-old Divisoria porter recounted to the DSWD chief the moment that made him viral. "Una pa lang hinabol ko siya habang nakita ko siyang nag-interview sa mga tao. Idol na Idol ko kasi sila sa pag-interview at pag-communicate sa inyong mga tao. Talagang hangang-hanga ako," Christian told Secretary Gatchalian.

As a leader in social protection and champion of the youth sector, the DSWD extends assistance to the vulnerable youth to capacitate them in becoming active participants in nation-building.

"Well, kung ganun yung dedikasyon mo, I'm sure mapapalago mo yung sustainable livelihood program natin. Now, alam ko na bago mo marating yung pangarap mo maging reporter, kailangan maghanap buhay muna... So, habang nag ti-training ka mag-reporter, maghanap buhay ka muna," Secretary Gatchalian told Christian.

When asked about his plans for the future, Christian said he wants to start a siomai business while studying.

"Plano ko sana makapag-aaral, makapagtapos, and then habang nag-aaral, makapag-business ako... Yung parang siomai-yan," Christian said.

Secretary Gatchalian affirmed that the SLP will equip Christian with the appropriate skills training to manage a business.

The initiative reflects the DSWD's continued implementation of both its crisis-response mechanisms and long-term livelihood interventions, consistent with the directive of President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. to ensure that individuals like Christian are provided with opportunities to rebuild their lives as they pursue their aspirations. (PIA)

150 Magniniyog, Sinanay sa Pamamahala at Pagnenegosyo

Isa sa mga hangarin ng Coconut Farmers and Industry Development Plan (CFIDP) ang pagpapalakas sa kapasidad ng mga magniniyog sa larangan ng pagnenegosyo upang mas mapataas ang kanilang kita at mapaunlad ang pamumuhay.

Bilang bahagi ng inisyatiba para dito, matagumpay na nagtapos ang 150 magniniyog mula sa mga bayan ng Nagcarlan, Laguna; Pagbilao, Buenavista, at Mulanay, Quezon; at Agoncillo, Batangas sa isinagawang Training on Coconut Farm Business School (FBS) na ginanap sa Lucena City, Quezon noong ika-28 ng Nobyembre.

Layon ng nasabing pagsasanay na palakasin ang kaalaman at kakayahang mga magniniyog sa larangan ng agripreneurship, modernong pamamahala ng niyugan, at pagbuo ng mga value-adding enterprise upang higit na mapataas ang kita at produktibidad sa kanilang mga sakahan.

Sa loob ng 10 araw na pagsasanay, tinalakay sa mga kalahok ang mga mahalagang paksa tulad ng farm business planning, cost and return analysis, value chain upgrading, contract farming, at pagbuo ng sustenableng coconut-based enterprise.

Ang pagtatapos ng 150 magniniyog ay patunay ng lumalakas na suporta at interes ng komunidad sa pagpapaunlad ng industriya ng niyug sa CALABARZON.

Binigyang-diin din na ang Coco FBS ay hindi lamang nakatuon sa teknikal na kaalaman, kundi sa pagbibigay inspirasyon sa mga magniniyog upang maging mas maalam na negosyante sa sariling sakahan.

Nagpahayag naman ng pasasalamat ang mga kalahok sa oportunidad na maipagpatuloy ang kanilang pagkatuto at makakuha ng bagong perspektiba sa pamamahala ng niyugan. Kinikilala nila ang malaking ambag ng programa sa pagpapalakas ng kanilang kabuhayan at sa pagpapalago ng industriya sa kanilang bayan.

"We were enlightened about having a farm business that will help us uplift our standard of living, if we put our hearts and mind in using the resources that sometimes we only take for granted. We enjoyed doing the market survey and the benchmarking activities, which for me are really informative," ani Bb. Guillerma Cacao, isa sa mga kalahok.

Bilang bahagi ng programa sa patuloy na pagsuporta sa mga magniniyog, inaasahan pang magtataguyod ng karagdagang mga pagsasanay at programa na magpapalawak ng oportunidad sa sektor ng agrikultura sa rehiyon ang DA-ATI CALABARZON at mga katuwang na ahensya. Consultations delay 2nd day of 2026 budget bicam

MANILA – Senate and House leaders on Sunday explained the delayed start of the second day of the bicameral conference committee on the 2026 national budget, saying the pause was needed to address concerns on several budget items before talks could resume.

Sen. Francis "Kiko" Pangilinan said the Senate asked to move the scheduled 2 p.m. resumption of the bicam meeting to 3 p.m. after some senators raised issues on provisions that had already been discussed, as well as on items still slated for deliberation.

"We'd like to apologize to our counterparts in the House if we requested for a later time to convene... It's because some of our colleagues in the Senate raised some concerns about some of the items that have been tackled and will be tackled, and we felt the need to convene," Pangilinan said, adding that the Senate meeting to address the concerns lasted nearly two hours.

Senate Committee on Finance chairperson Sen. Sherwin Gatchalian echoed the apology, acknowledging that the House contingent arrived earlier for the bicam session.

"Again, in behalf of the Senate contingent, we apologize for the delay," Gatchalian said.

House Committee on Appropriations chairperson Rep. Mikaela Suansing said the House understood the situation and accepted the reason, adding that the delay also gave House members time to consult among themselves.

"We understand the situation and we readily gave our acceptance... On the part of the House, thank you for giving us some time also to do a huddle," Suansing said, expressing optimism that lawmakers could proceed with the remaining agenda for the day.

The bicameral conference committee eventually resumed its deliberations at exactly 4:49 p.m. after the consultations.

The panel is tasked with reconciling the disagreeing provisions of House Bill 4058, or the proposed 2026 General Appropriations Act, with the proceedings opened to the public and livestreamed to promote transparency in the budget process. (PNA)

PINUNO NG MGA NEGOSYO PINAGTIBAY ANG MALAKAS NA KUMPIYANSA SA MGA REFORMA SA CUSTOMS SA CICAC ASSEMBLY

Mga katoto halos wala pang isang taon nakatalaga ang ating butihing Customs Commissioner Ariel Nepomuceno sa Bureau of Customs ay umani na ng papuri ito sa ibat ibat bang sektor ng mga negosyante particular na sa mga pinuno ng industriya tulad ng CICAC, FFFCCII, at FFFCCII, PCCBI, kabilang na ang ASEAN country.

Tulad ng mga pinuno ng industriya ay nagpahayag ng matinding tiwala sa mga nangyayaring reforma ng Bureau of Customs (BOC) sa ilalim ni Commissioner Ariel F. Nepomuceno sa pangkalahatang pagpupulong ng Customs Industry Consultative and Advisory Council (CICAC) na ginanap noong Nobyembre 27, 2025, sa Federation of Filipino Chinese Chambers of Commerce and Industry, Inc. sa Binondo, Manila.

Ang mga kinatawan mula sa pribadong sektor at mga opisyal ng BOC ay nagtipunton sa pagpupulong, kung saan ang ilang mga pinuno mula sa iba't ibang organisasyon ng kalakalan at kumpanya ay nagbabahagi mismo ng mga obserbasyon sa pinabuting transparency ng ahensya, pinahusay na predictability, at pinalakas na pakikipagtulungan sa industriya. Itinampok ng pagtipunton ang tungkulin ng CICAC bilang isang mahalagang forum para sa bukas na diyalogo, pakikipagtulungan, at pakikipagtulungan sa pagpapadali ng kalakalan.

Isa sa mga pinaka-nakakahimok na patotoo ay nagsula kay G. Rex Daryanani, Tagapangulo ng Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce (Phils.) Inc. "Bilang mga kasosyo sa pagbuo ng bansa, matatag na nani-nindigan ang komunidad ng negosyo kasama ng Kawayahan sa marangal na misyon nito: kolektahan ang mga tamang buwis, tiyakin ang pagiging patas sa kalakalan, at tiyak na puk-sain ang lahat ng anyo ng katiwalian mula sa dating sistema, na hindi tinatanggall at tungo sa isang sistema. isa na ngayon ay tinukoy ng propesyonalismo at pananagutan.

Pinuri niya ang mga inisyatiba ni Commissioner Nepomuceno sa automation, pinalakas ang mga panloob na kontrol, at ang institusyonalisasyon ng CICAC bilang isang modelo ng bukas na pakikipagtulungan na maaaring sundin ng ibang mga ahensya.

In his message, Commissioner Nepomuceno reiterated the Bureau's commitment to a service-oriented approach, stating, "Gusto naming marinig ang kailangan ninyo, again, to facilitate trade, to improve your businesses, and make Customs your partner, not your problem." Binigyang-diin niya na ang direksyon ito ay sumasalamin sa hangarin ng BOC na tiyakin ang isang mas tumutugon at mahusay na kapaligiran sa kaugalian na naaayon sa mga pangangailangan ng komunidad ng negosyo. Sinabi ni Philippine Chamber of Customs Brokers, Inc. (PCCBI) President Atty.

Nagpahayag din ng suporta si Norberto Castillo sa direksyon ng ahensya. "Naramdaman namin na ang ganda ng mga ini-institute ninyo reforms. We're hoping na ituloy-tuloy ninyo ito. We are with you dito sa advocacy ninyo na good governance sa Bureau of Customs," he noted, underscoring the positive impact of the Commissioner's reforms on customs brokerage and trade facilitation.

Habang ang Customs and Industry Training Institute (CITI) Philippines Corp. at ang FFCCII ay nagpakita ng mga token of appreciation kay Commissioner Nepomuceno bilang pagkilala sa mga pagsisikap ng BOC na palimin ang pakikipag-ugnayan sa industriya at mapanatili ang mga reforma na nagtaguyod ng integridad at pagiging patas sa mga proseso ng customs. Ang kanilang kilos ay sumasalamin sa lumalagong kumpiyansa ng komunidad ng negosyo sa panibagong direksyon ng ahensya.

Pinasalamanan ni Commissioner Nepomuceno ang business community para sa kanilang partnership at muling pinagtibay ang pangako ng BOC na ipagpatuloy ang reform agenda nito. Nagpahayag ng kumpiyansa ang Komisyoner na sa pamamagitan ng ibinahaging responsibilidad at pakikipagtulungan, ang ahensya at ang mga kasosyo nito ay makakabuo ng kapaligiran pangkalakalan na sumusuporta sa paglago ng ekonomiya at nagpapalakas ng tiwala ng publiko.

Ang mga pinuno ng industriya ng CICAC, FFFCCII, PCCBI na nagpahayag ng matinding tiwala sa mga nangyayaring reforma sa Bureau of Customs sa ilalim ng pamumuno ni Customs Commissioner Ariel Nepomuceno (giting) sa pangkalahatang pagpupulong na naganap kamakailan sa FFFCCII Bldg., Binondo Manila.
